

Community Fundraising Volunteer

About Comhaltas in Britain

Comhaltas in Britain is part of the worldwide movement called Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann. It is the largest worldwide organisation devoted to the promotion and preservation of Irish Traditional music, song, dance and language. Our mission is to bring a community of all ages together to learn, share and experience the music and culture of Ireland.

What does a community fundraising volunteer do?

A community fundraising volunteer supports all the work that Comhaltas in Britain does in our local communities across England, Scotland and Wales. You'll be supporting the team in the generation of the funds to continue our grassroot projects. These funds help us to do more in the community and provide unique experiences for our members.

Location

Comhaltas in Britain is split into 4 regions: London & Southern, Midlands, Northern, Scotland. We have 25 branches across Britain with new branches being developed every year.

Role description

- Support local fundraising events, including generating ideas.
- Distribute promotional materials to the general public.
- Help with distribution of raffle tickets [Music Draw] to the local community.

What will you get out of it?

- Development of fundraising skills
- Development of event management skills
- Meet new people
- Add value to your community
- Learn new transferable skills
- Enhance your CV

Skills and knowledge required

- People skills
- Organised and self-motivated
- Experience at handling monies is desirable
- Experience of fundraising is desirable
- Good communication skills

Further information

- Expenses covered
- Reporting to Community Project Officer

- DBS check may be required

Contact: Elske Simpson [Community Project Officer] at elske@comhaltas.co.uk